The Humble
ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual & Temporal In Parliament Assembled.

Die Jovis 22^o Octobris, 1702.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal
 Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament Assembled, do with all Dutiful Acknowledgments return Your Majesty Our most Humble Thanks for Your Gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament; and take Leave on this Occasion to Congratulate the Prosperous and Glorious Success with which it hath pleased God to Bless Your Majesties Arms, in Conjunction with Your Allies, under the Command of the Earl of Marlborough; as also for the other Successes of Your Majesties Allies in Ger- many and Italy; and for the Prosperous Condition the Trade of the Nation is now in, which We Acknowledge is chiefly owing to Your Majesties great Wisdom and Conduct. We humbly take Leave to Assure Your Majesty That We shall always be ready to Assist You to Our utmost, in the Prosecution of this Just and Necessary War.

We likewise return Your Majesty Our most Humble Thanks for the Resolution You are pleas'd to Express, to Maintain and Defend the Church as by Law Establish'd, and to Protect Us in the full Enjoyment of Our Rights and Liberties: And We farther presume to assure Your Majesty, That We shall be ready, on all Occasions, to Support and Defend Your Royal Person and Government with all possible Zeal and Duty.

Her MAJESTIES most Gracious
Answer to the Address.

My LORDS,

Your Address is very Acceptable to Me: I Thank You kindly for Your Congratulations, and I hope You will have frequent Occasions of Renewing them.

F I N I S.
